ALLIES STRIKE TO CLEAR NAZI GUNS BLOCKING ANTWERP

AMPHIBIOUS FORCES SAID TO HAVE LANDED ON THE SOUTH SHORE OF BEVELAND ISLAND

Invasion Reported In German Communique As Montgomery's Pincers Tighten on Nazis Clinging To Deltas of Southwest Holland

ENEMY BEING CLEARED FROM 'S HERTOGENBOSCH

By WILLIAM FRYE
London, Oct. 26.—(P)—The German high command announced today that Allied forces, striking to clear the last Nazi guns blocking Allied convoys from Antwerp, had landed on the south shore of Beveland Island.

"Counter-measures are in progress," the communique said, indicating the amphibious forces already had made good a bridgehead on the north side of the Schelde estuary.

Earlier Berlin broadcasts that Walcheren, another island north of the estuary, had been invaded by Allied land and sea forces were not borne out by the communique.

EIGHTH ARMY MOPS UP IN SAVIO SECTOR

Advance Northward Carries Americans to Point Only Thirty-Seven Miles From Bologna

RIVER BEVANO CROSSED

Rome, Oct. 26.—(P)—Eight Army troops have cleared the Germans from the Savio river line in the eastern Po valley and, thrusting from bridgeheads west and north of Cesena, have advanced northward to within five miles of Forlì along the highway to Bologna. Allied headquarters announced today.

The Eighth Army advanced at least 11 miles in a thrust that placed it only 37 miles from Bologna.

"The enemy having withdrawn, Eighth Army troops have advanced rapidly from their Cesena bridgehead, have driven in enemy rear guards and crossed the river Bevano," the communique said.

West of the Bevano, the Allied forces captured the town of Forlimpopoli, directly on the Bologna highway, and reached the Ronco river, three miles beyond. The lack of resistance indicated the advance would continue to Forlì itself.

Canadian troops striking out from their bridgehead across the Savio river above Cesena have reached a point more than four miles to the northwest.

South of the Po valley highway British, Indian and Polish troops were clearing mountainous terrain of Germans.

The Fifth Army meanwhile continued to batter away against stiff resistance on the southern approach to Bologna. The German (Turn to Page Thirteen)

Bricker Bids For Oklahoma Votes

Shawnee, Okla., Oct. 26.—(P)—Gov. John W. Bricker declared today that the new deal had "soured" the employer and precipitated "class hatreds, riots, strikes and strained relations" between capital and labor.

The Republican nominee for vice president, in a prepared speech released by his campaign staff, as he entered Oklahoma after a fast, one-day tour through Texas, pictured the worker and employer as "two wheels on the same axle."

"If one turns," he added, "the other turns. If friction slows down one of them, the progress of the other is impeded. The job of government is to ease the strain and pull between the two and to encourage the forward movement of both."

Governor Bricker will wind up his Oklahoma campaign tonight with a speech in Enid, to be broadcast over more than a score of radio stations in Oklahoma, Missouri, Texas and Kansas.

In a statement recognizing Navy Day, tomorrow, he said:

"On this Navy Day, 1944, the nation pauses to salute the men of the United States navy. Their heroic performance has won the admiration and gratitude of all men who fight for freedom. Never before has sea power played so significant a role in the determination of American destiny and the course of world history.

"In the greatest and most difficult naval war fought, our navy has emerged from its ordeal by fire as a massive striking force, a chief of the German army general staff, has taken charge of the Russian front as commander in chief of Nazi armies in the east, the German foreign office said today in a broadcast.

Unswerving Support of the Navy Is Urged By President

Washington, Oct. 26.—(P)—President Roosevelt, amid reports of stirring naval victory in the far Pacific, urged today the unswerving support of the navy "until the last battle is won."

In a statement recognizing Navy Day, tomorrow, he said:

"On this Navy Day, 1944, the nation pauses to salute the men of the United States navy. Their heroic performance has won the admiration and gratitude of all men who fight for freedom. Never before has sea power played so significant a role in the determination of American destiny and the course of world history.

En Route With Dewey to Albany, Oct. 26.—(P)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, vowing a charge that President Roosevelt had sponsored an idea to "sell special privilege" to $1,000 contributors to the Democratic fourth term fund, called today for a new national administration founded on "rudimentary honesty."

The Republican presidential nominee told a yelling, whistling throng in the Chicago stadium last night that it was time for Americans to "resolve here and now to put an end to government by the cynical theory of 'who gets what, when and why.'"

Storybook Tale In Erie Sailor's Letter

Erie, Oct. 26.—(P)—Missing in action for a year, a 22-year-old sailor is now safe in Tunisia. And what's more he plans to marry the daughter of an Italian family who prevented his capture by the Germans.

That's the storybook tale unfolded in a letter from Seaman Second Class Jack Talarico to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Talarico.

Talarico, reported missing Sept. 14, 1943, requested his parents in the letter to write the girl's parents in his behalf and ask for her hand in marriage.

Fourth Term Fund Scored In Dewey Talk

En Route With Dewey to Albany, Oct. 26.—(P)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, vowing a charge that President Roosevelt had sponsored an idea to "sell special privilege" to $1,000 contributors to the Democratic fourth term fund, called today for a new national administration founded on "rudimentary honesty."

The Republican presidential nominee told a yelling, whistling throng in the Chicago stadium last night that it was time for Americans to "resolve here and now to put an end to government by the cynical theory of 'who gets what, when and why.'"

Declaring that men and women on WPA had been "shaken down for political contributions to the new deal," Dewey asserted that Mr. Roosevelt himself had counseled a plan by which he said those who wished to help finance the fourth term campaign would be invited to participate "in the formulation of administration policies" for one thousand dollars on the barrelhead.

The audience responded with a loud groan.

"That's why it's time for a change," the New York governor cried.

Andy Frain, chief usher, estimated that 30,000 persons were packed into the hall and there were 10,000 outside.

Dewey took for his text a letter he said had been dated Oct. 16 on the stationery of the National Democratic Campaign Headquarters in Little Rock, Ark., and signed by H. L. McAllister, and Sam J. Watkins, Arkansas finance directors for the Democratic campaign. Dewey said the letter was inspired by a recent conference at the White House between President Roosevelt, Robert E. Hannegan, Democratic national chairman, and Edwin Pauley, party treasurer.

Scheduled to arrive in Albany this afternoon, Dewey planned to put the final touches to an agricultural address which he will deliver at 12:30 p. m., in Syracuse Saturday. It will be the first major speech he has made in daylight hours since his nomination.

New York, Oct. 26.—(P)—A delegation of Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, Republican presidential nominee, in his Chicago speech last night that President Roosevelt's administration "boldly offers for sale 'special privilege,'" has been denied by Democratic National Committee Chairman Robert E. Hannegan.

Independent Voters Cause Some Worry

Washington, Oct. 26.—(P)—The running jump which landed Republican Senator Joseph H. Ball of Minnesota on the Democratic side of the political fence has set the politicians to worrying anew about that mass of voters on top of the fence.

What the mass of independent voters are going to do or the amount of influence Democratic dissidents and Republican rebels are wielding is hard to gauge.

In bordering states, where a relatively few votes may swing the election, these factors are important.

Actually there have been few men high in the ranks of either party who have announced definitely that they will bolt. Ball is one who has taken an unmistakable stand. He said he will vote for and support the reelection of President Roosevelt. He will give some of his reasons in a 15-minute radio address tonight.

Ball isn't alone among Republicans endorsing the president's bid for another four years in the White House. Russell Davenport, who managed the 1940 GOP campaign of the late Wendell L. Willkie, has expressed a preference for the chief executive's foreign policy.

Death Summons Princess Beatrice

London, Oct. 26.—(P)—Princess Beatrice, youngest and last surviving child of Britain's famed Queen Victoria and mother of former Queen Victoria Eugenie of Spain, died today.

Christened Beatrice Marie Victoria Feodore but known all her life simply as Princess Beatrice, she was governor and captain of the Isle of Wight since the death of her husband, Prince Henry of Battenberg, in 1896. She would have been 88 next April 14.

As governor, she had the title of coroner for the island, the only woman in Britain to hold it. She never held inquiries, however, the duties being discharged by a deputy coroner.

Princess Beatrice was an aunt of the late King George V, Kaiser Wilhelm of Germany and Queen Marie of Rumania.

BRIDGEHEAD MADE ACROSS VISTULA RIVER

Russian and Polish Troops Outflank Warsaw and Pose New Threat to East Prussia

ARCTIC PORT CAPTURED

By DANIEL DE LUCE

Moscow, Oct. 26.—(P)—Russian and Polish troops, suddenly renewing the offensive in the Warsaw area, have driven a bridgehead at least six miles deep across the Vistula river just north of the beleaguered Polish capital, outflanking the city and posed still another threat to East Prussia from the south, Moscow revealed today.

While other Red army forces sweeping into Norway captured the prize Arctic port of Kirkenes and completed the conquest of Transylvania in the south, Marshal Konstantin Rokossovsky's First Russian army, along with units of the First Polish army, reached the Warsaw suburb towns of Lasiki and Dabrowka and closely approached the main railway leading westward into Germany proper, a Soviet communique said.

Lasiki is five miles northwest of Warsaw and situated on the secondary road flanking on the north the chief highway and rail communications to East Prussia. Dabrowka is 19 miles northwest of Warsaw and six miles south of the big Vistula bend.

If Rokossovsky has built up a new punch in recent weeks—and there seems good reason to believe he has done just that—momentous operations may be developing that will overshadow anything else on the eastern front.

Rokossovsky was advancing on the west side of the Vistula on a front at least 12 miles wide aiming at Lovicz, big rail junction 20 miles southwest of Dabrowka and 45 miles in the rear of Warsaw. From there he would be in a position to destroy the German grip on western Poland.

Meanwhile, the invasion of East Prussia ran into a storm of fanatical Nazi counter-attacks around Bumbinnen and Goldap and, while the advance continued, it brought gains of less than two miles on a separated front.

Final plans for President Roosevelt's Philadelphia visit tomorrow are being rounded into shape.

With only a few details still to be ironed out, the committee on arrangements and secret service disclosed:

A police force of 4,500 men and 174 detectives, plus secret service and department of justice men—aided by 2,500 auxiliary policemen—will guard the president.

Twenty-five hundred college and high school girls will act as hostesses at Shibe Park.

Gates at the ball park will open at 6 p. m., with the formal program starting at 7:30 o'clock and the president scheduled to arrive at 8:55 o'clock.

Previous to the 9 o'clock speech, Mr. Roosevelt will tour the Philadelphia naval yard, the navy hospital, city and nearby war plants and shipyards and will visit Camden, N. J.

In another development on the political front, GOP State Chairman M. Harvey Taylor said he would go to Washington for a Saturday 10 a. m. hearing before the senate campaign expenditures committee.

Counsel Robert Murphy of the committee also said several Pennsylvanians, including Taylor, have been subpoenaed in an investigation of campaign literature. Republican state headquarters said in a statement issued under Taylor's name:

Battle Casualties Now Total 472,779

Washington, Oct. 26.—(P)—Battle casualties of the United States armed forces total 472,779.

Secretary of War Simson reported today that army casualties for all theatres, reported through October 14, numbered 403,974.

The latest navy casualty figure is 69,705.

The army total represents an increase of 18,179 for the interval between October 6, the date covered by the previous report, and October 14.

In the same interval, navy casualties increased 1,225.

Erie Factory Official Denies Any Holdups

Erie, Oct. 26.—(P)—A spokesman for the Lord Manufacturing Co., whose aircraft parts plant today was operated by the navy under presidential order, declared that the firm "always has been and always will be 100 per cent for the war effort."

"We don't want to go broke voluntarily," said the company's vice president, Thomas Lord, in commenting on the seizure yesterday following a price dispute. The action was the first of its kind.

Rear Adm. Harold G. Bowman and a staff of seven had charge of the plant today. President Roosevelt's executive order said the company had "willfully refused and failed to furnish" war materials at prices fixed in a joint army-navy order of Sept. 23.

Lord said: "There has been no holdup of production. There has been no holdup of shipments. The only holdup has been by the gov- (Turn to Page Thirteen)

NIPPONESE NAVY SUSTAINS MOST CRUSHING DEFEAT IN HISTORIC THREE-FOLD ROUT

Imperial Armada is Stripped of Carrier, Battleship and Cruiser Power Necessary to Engage In Major Actions

FINAL REPORTS MAY REVEAL HEAVIER LOSSES

BULLETIN

Aboard Adm. Daniel Barbey's Flagship, Leyte Gulf, Philippines, Oct. 25.—(Delayed)—(P)—Two battleships, one cruiser and three destroyers were sunk by United States surface ships and aircraft when a Japanese force of eight warships tried to reach Leyte Gulf from the south through the Sulu Sea and the Surigao Strait. Only a cruiser and a destroyer escaped and both were damaged heavily.

By Charles H. McMurtry

U. S. Pacific Fleet Headquarters, Pearl Harbor, Oct. 26.—(P)—More than 26 Japanese warships were sunk or heavily damaged in the three-pronged battle of the Philippines, incomplete reports on the most crushing defeat ever administered the modern Nipponese navy disclosed today.

Combined reports of Adm. Chester W. Nimitz and Gen. Douglas MacArthur on the three major engagements involving the bulk of the Japanese fleet listed these known results:

Eight Japanese ships sunk—two carriers, one battleship and five cruisers.

Three probably sunk—two battleships, one carrier.

More than 15 damaged—seven battleships, four cruisers, four destroyers, and "several" more destroyers.

Both commanders made it clear that their final reports will show heavier Japanese losses, particularly in ships sunk.

The crushing three-fold defeat apparently left the emperor's navy stripped of the carrier, battleship and cruiser power necessary to again engage the U. S. fleet in a major action, successfully oppose a landing on the China coast, or strongly defend the shores of Japan itself from attack.

MacArthur's invasion of the Philippines touched off the triple battle, among the greatest in naval history.

Nimitz' report today was limited to two engagements—an overwhelmingly one-sided victory over the largest Japanese task force, caught south of Formosa by U. S. carrier planes, warships and submarines; and a crucial air-sea engagement (Turn to Page Thirteen)

Truman To Give Farm Talk Tonight

With Truman, Enroute to Peoria, Ill., Oct. 26.—(P)—Senator Harry S. Truman carried to Peoria today a farm speech which he said would make clear to the Midwest that President Roosevelt is the farmer's real friend.

The address, scheduled for delivery at 9 o'clock (CWT), tonight, the Democratic vice presidential candidate told reporters, "will make clear that the Republicans in congress opposed every attempt by the administration to give the farmers a break."

In the meantime, Truman said "I plan to continue to insist that the Republican presidential candidate say whether he favors the reelection of eight Republican senate isolationists, whose support he seems to accept, when he talks of favoring a strong foreign policy."

Archbishop Of Canterbury Dies

London, Oct. 26.—(P)—The Archbishop of Canterbury, the Most Rev. William Temple, died today after a heart attack. The primate of all England was 63 and had been enthroned in bomb-pocked old Canterbury cathedral since April 23, 1943.

His death, and that of Princess Beatrice, which occurred a few hours earlier, plunged England into mourning. Princess Beatrice, last surviving child of Queen Victoria, was 88 years old.

Dr. Temple was the son of an Archbishop of Canterbury and they were the only father and son ever to hold the highest office in the Church of England. His father was the late Dr. Frederick Temple, who was Archbishop during the reign of Edward VII.

The 98th archbishop of Canterbury fervently supported the British war effort.

Stray Leaves From Notebook Of Reporter About the Town

Up at the police station this morning almost two pages of the docket were devoted to the "write ups" of calls received relative to the depredations of young sprouts celebrating Halloween. A glance down the docket elicited the fact that the "kids were making noise" and the remarkable thing was that most of the terrible things were done about 9 o'clock. Coppers were sent dashing here and there lecturing the kiddies and taming them down. From observation groups of children were abroad in the town going from door to door ringing bells and laughing and making some noise. Most of them carried a bag and the householder who slipped the kids a couple of cookies, an apple, or chunk of candy were rewarded with a "thank you." Plenty of them jangled their scribbles door-bell and giggled outside his home.

Somewhat it strikes me that a lot of folks have forgotten the days when they were kids and did a lot of things so darned much worse than the kids today are doing that it wasn't even funny. Back in the days when everyone had a Chic Sales out on the far reaches of their back lot the day after Halloween would find a householder out putting his two holed back on its foundation and from appearances a hurricane had upset the privies of the town. Wagons were draped on telephone poles and the old iron lamp posts looked like Christmas trees with porch chairs hanging from their arms.

Poor old John Utter and his doughy cops were run ragged chasing the boys and the girls who were out rattling corn off window panes and banging cabbage stalks against doors. Gardens were raided and ammunition for the barages were mighty handy as everyone had a garden.

Probably it's the nerves that cause the many calls for the police and then too the telephone is handy. Many have come to the conclusion that perhaps the folks nowadays see too many movies of "Frankenstein" and other horror films and develop nerves that the noise of

The United States Employment Service of the War Manpower Commission at Warren placed 322 workers in jobs last month, David Levine, Manager of the USES office announced today. Of these placements, he said 132 were women.

"Under the priority referral system, whereby we channel as many male workers as possible into war jobs where they are most vitally needed," Mr. Levine said "many of these workers were found jobs directly backing the war effort."

Placements in occupational groups were as follows: Professional and managerial 7, clerical and sales 33, service jobs 10, skilled work 26, semi-skilled 56, unskilled and other 190.

The Employment Service here anticipates continued heavy demand for workers in view of the present manpower shortage, it was said.

FARM NEWS

Harrisburg, Oct. 26.—(P)—Production of six field crops in Pennsylvania this year exceeded that of last year despite handicaps of drought and labor shortages, the state agriculture department reported today.

Increased acreages and as good or bigger yields per acre, the department said, brought bigger harvests for corn, wheat, oats, buckwheat, and tobacco, while rye production was 42,000 bushels more than 1943 although acreage was reduced 10 per cent.

The department said production of wheat, buckwheat, potatoes and tobacco also was greater this year than in the bumper crop year of 1942, but the only crops to exceed the 10-year average production, 1933-1944, were wheat, buckwheat, tobacco and hay.

Of individual crops, the report said:

Tobacco production of almost 50 million pounds was largest since 1941. The average was six per cent above that of 1943.

A corn yield of 33,000,000 bushels or nearly 4,000,000 more than last year, was estimated Oct. 1.

Acreage was up eight per cent and average yield per acre was 35 bushels, the same as last year.

Wheat production totaled an estimated 20,108,000 bushels or 6,831,000 more than in 1943. The yield per acre jumped from 17 to 22 bushels and the acreage was up 17 per cent.

An increase in oats acreage of nine per cent brought an estimated total yield of 23,712,000 bushels, a 8,824,000 bushel increase from 1943.

The buckwheat crop totaled 2,982,000 bushels more than 1943 and the rye crop 668,000 bushels.

Potato production is estimated at 18,645,000 bushels, only 11,000 under the 1943 yield, although acreage was reduced six per cent. The average yield per acre, however, was 113 bushels, seven more than the year before.

In another agricultural report, the bureau of foods and chemistry said only 5.4 per cent of the 479 samples of fertilizers checked during 1943 were found to be deficient in meeting manufacturer's guarantees on the amount of one or more elements of plant food.

Deficiencies were found to be two tenths of one per cent or more in all the 26 samples which failed to meet guarantees.

The bureau report allied 378,733 tons of fertilizers were sold to farmers in Pennsylvania in 1942, based on reports of manufacturers when they applied for 1943 licenses.

Milk production of 399 million pounds in September was a drop of nine per cent from August but a two per cent increase over September, 1943, the agriculture department's federal-state crop reporting service announced.

The percentage of cows milked was 77.3 per cent, the lowest reported on Oct. 1 since records began in 1928, while farmers also were feeding a slightly larger ration of grain than a year earlier.

Production per cow in herds kept by crop correspondents, the service added, was 0.3 of a pound lower on Oct. 1 than on Sept. 1 but 0.5 of a pound higher than Oct. 1, 1943.

The beautiful Roberta, the girl with the world's most perfect figure. She appears in person in America's foremost vaudeville show, the all new, combined 1945 Karston Show, playing the Library Theatre in Warren Tuesday, Oct. 31st, for one day only. 3 stage shows—at 4:15, 7:00, 9:15.

Headliners from such outstanding engagements as the Roxy Theatre, N. Y., and the Oriental Theatre, Chicago.

Music lovers! See this great Ziegfeld Follies comedian, Gene Gory and his crazy band. See the Crazy Band's comic portrayal of Phil Spitalny's All Girl Orchestra. You've seen Goodman and Dorsey, but until you have seen the Crazy Band, you've seen nothing.

The San Francisco Chronicle wrote, "Gory does a number that's a riot." Appeared at the Roxy with Fred Waring!

See glamorous "Pin Up Girls", select beauties from the Follies and Scandals.

See Dare Devil Dault, the man who defies death! The world's most thrilling act! The Seattle Times wrote "Dare Devil Dault is a wonder." In Minneapolis, 8000 people crowded the streets to see this amazing man. Death defying balancing feats at the very roof of the theatre.

See the alluring, beautiful Roberta in her awe inspiring "Dance of Temptation." The Cleveland Press wrote "Roberta Makes Sally Rand Seem Old Fashioned." This is a great compliment, as Miss Rand is very good, a study in feminine beauty. Admired by women! Thrilling to the men!

Hear the 3 Calvert Sisters singing your favorite "Hit Parade Tunes." As presented over the Blue Network.

These great attractions, and many, many more, 1000 laughs! 1000 thrills! The nation's outstanding vodvil show. A musical, girl, band, comedy and vaudeville show combined.

POLITICS AS USUAL

The surprising thing about this wartime presidential campaign is not that it is taking place at all (though even that seemed to surprise and impress some of our Allies and neighbors at first) but that it is so little different from all the others, says James Thrasher in an editorial written for NEA Service and the Times-Mirror.

Every voter must have thought that somehow it would be different this year. Grave tasks lay ahead, serious issues were involved, many lives were already lost in this war and many more were at stake. Surely these things would lend the campaign the dignity that it demanded. But they didn't, and probably because no one, not even the professional politicians, realized quite how strongly the traditional manner of electioneering has fastened itself upon us.

So we succumbed to mass political hypnotism, as is our quadrennial custom. There was some gravity and decorum at the beginning. But the candidates were simply starting up in low gear, and the whole country seemed to feel more natural when they shifted into high. The usual wave of emotionalism, exaggeration and equivocation swept through both parties, and engulfed them.

Now we are once again in the homestretch, and once again officeholders and their confederates are expending breath, time and money on speeches designed to provide ammunition for voters, who have already made up their minds, to use against people of opposite political beliefs, who have already made up theirs.

The speakers, more often than not, are responsible men and women in high places who would shudder at any other time to utter the rash and intemperate statements that issue from their lips today. But no one holds them morally responsible. For by an accepted self-deception that is strange and subconscious, they and their hearers agree to believe thunderous half-truths and extravagant nonsense until Nov. 7.

And thus once more the echoes and the radio waves resound with rhetoric, hyperbole and downright insult. And the candidates are outdone by their supporters who, as usual, circulate rumors which are not only ridiculous but disgraceful, and which could hardly have been planted by even the lowest echelon of professional politics. Wide-eyed and glib as children, the voters either believe them or dignify them by attempts at serious refutation.

In the meantime, while all this has been going on, factory chimneys have kept on smoking as Roosevelt and Dewey supporters, side by side, have continued to turn out the tools of war. Meanwhile Germany has been entered and the Philippines have been invaded, and men have died in battle, and victory has come closer.

On Nov. 8 the national political trance will end, the people will rally behind the next President and continue the war as a united nation.

The presidential campaign hasn't been pretty. It never is. But even in wartime, it isn't fatal.

CLEARING THE WAY IN THE PACIFIC

The crushing defeat handed the Japanese navy in the Philippine waters brings to the nation the cheering thought that the whole course of the war may now be changed and victory brought months ahead.

In the opinion of war analysts a Japanese defeat of the magnitude reported in first dispatches would mean that Japan is through as a naval power—that powerful American task forces which never have feared engagement with the enemy would be relieved of any trouble from sizeable naval forces.

And with such freedom of action—relieved of any necessity of guarding against operation of the Japanese fleet—the American Pacific fleet may now concentrate upon wiping out remaining enemy surface units and softening up of Japan's island bases.

Folks who want to make sure of eating turkey on Thanksgiving are already making reservations for dinner four weeks from today.

Most folks are glad to see the kids having fun with pumpkin faces at this Hallowe'en season—if they get the pumpkin pie.

The heavy question right now is to wear them or not to wear them!

Hang out Old Glory tomorrow in observance of Navy Day!

Fleeing Japs Leave Stocks Of Saki and Beer To Yanks

By JAMES HUTCHESON
With U. S. Troops in Tacloban, Leyte Island, Philippines, Oct. 22—(Delayed)—(P)—Fleeing Japanese troops contributed large stocks of Saki and beer to the Filipino celebration of the liberation of Tacloban.

When veteran troops of the First Cavalry Division arrived in the provincial capital a day ahead of the D-Day schedule, they were met by delirious happy Filipinos.

The gaily-dressed Filipinos lined the streets and windows, shouting, grinning, waving their hands and flags. Maj. Gen. Verbe D. Mudge, division commander, estimated 500 U. S. flags were on display. Scores of Filipinos trudged along happily with cases of beer on their heads. Even children carried it. Two 12-year-old girls laughingly carried a case between them.

It all came from large stocks of beer and saki left behind them by the garrison of 1,000 Japanese troops that hastily fled to hills yesterday under heavy bombing and artillery fire.

Vengeful, Filipinos hacked up one Japanese who was killed inside the city. General Mudge received 40 surrendering Formosan laborers after his tank battered through an upset truck which the enemy had set up as a street block. He found a guerrilla presiding over the Formosans who held their hands aloft and appeared happy to be taken.

Tacloban, a city of 30,000 and the largest on Leyte island, is the first important Philippine town to fall to the invading Americans. (It is now the provisional capital of the Philippines, patrolled by the 7th Cavalry regiment.)

Conquest of the town came four hours after Gen. Douglas MacArthur was turned back by a blasted bridge as he attempted to go by jeep to inspect the advance lines.

General Mudge ordered one of his regiments to take the town one day after the main force and advanced speedily against surprisingly little resistance.

control roads up to two miles inland. Tacloban is about six miles by road from the original beachhead.

Lumbering mechanized Buffaloes, tanks and jeeps swarmed about the roads of the sector. The Filipino populace was deliriously happy. They lined the streets and windows, waving their hands and flags, shouting and grinning broadly.

General Mudge, who in the late afternoon underwent sniper fire on a swift tank reconnaissance of Tacloban, estimated 300 Japanese were killed while the division suffered ten killed and 25 wounded.

Tacloban is a city of contrasts in native and modern architecture. Most Filipino homes are built on stilts with contrasting thatched or corrugated metal roofs. There are many masonry buildings, including the white, provincial capital.

Tacloban is on a thumb of land jutting above Cancabato bay and with water on three sides. General Mudge expressed the belief that the Japanese decided against trying to defend it because it would be a natural trap when the Americans established their line across the thumb's base.

KEEP BUYING WAR BONDS

How about spending the next 5 minutes in hell?

FOR the next few minutes, imagine that you're an American soldier.

You might, for instance, imagine that you're a 20-year-old kid from Indiana, who got hit at Salerno, months ago.

Since then, you've been lying in a base hospital somewhere, with a leg that never stops hurting and a hole in your belly that makes the younger nurses sick when they try to dress it.

Or you might imagine that you're a war prisoner in an enemy hospital. For nearly two years now, you've been ill and weak and hopeless. And ahead of you lies a gray stretch of more sickness and weakness—while you try to keep alive the hope that somehow, sometime, you'll see your home again.

It doesn't make much difference where you let your mind take you—just as long as you put yourself in one of the spots where, at this minute, men are going through as real a hell as this earth ever sees. But do it, won't you?

If your imagination is any good at all, you'll dig down deep this year for your Community War Fund. For your money, through the U.S.O. Camp Shows and the War Prisoners' Aid, will help the boy in the hospital forget, for a little while, his hurt. It will give the man in the hospital new hope to carry him through.

When you give, you give just once, for all. So give all you can—

Stamp to Honor 50th Anniversary

The first official recognition of a 50th anniversary by the Post Office Department has been given to the motion picture industry. It was announced today by George C. Sarvis, local War Activities Committee-Motion Picture Industry chairman, that a special three-cent, special delivery size stamp, depicting a group of servicemen and women viewing one of the industry's 16-mm. gift films overseas, has been issued to commemorate the 50th anniversary of motion pictures. Postmaster General Frank C. Walker will sell the first stamp at a War Activities Committee luncheon on October 31st in New York. Postoffices throughout the country will receive shipments after that date.

In commenting on the signal honor paid the motion picture industry by this unprecedented move, Mr. Sarvis quoted a letter from the Postmaster General to George J. Schaefer, National Chairman of the Motion Picture Industry's War Activities Committee, which reads in part:

"It is true that motion pictures have taken the finest actors and best plays to the crossroads and contribution to the war effort, both from a technical and a morale standpoint.

"The Post Office Department is happy to issue this special stamp on the Fiftieth Anniversary of Motion Pictures."

Mr. Sarvis called attention to the fact that the various branches of our armed forces receive instruction through motion pictures, and millions of war workers are taught the importance of their jobs through this medium. The motion picture industry has cooperated wholeheartedly with the Government in all phases of the present conflict, and its representatives work with Army Pictorial Service to supply free entertainment films to troops at battlefronts throughout the world.

Enthusiastic Meeting Held By Democrats

An enthusiastic meeting of members of the Democratic county committee was held last evening in Democrat headquarters in Times Square. Every precinct in the county was represented and there was a large attendance of visitors.

County Chairman John Hanna presided at the meeting and, after making a short speech in which he told those present the object of the meeting, asked for the cooperation of every member of the committee in getting out the vote on election day.

He then asked for reports from committee members and there was not a single committeeman who did not report that things looked much brighter for the Democratic candidates than it did four years ago. They were a unit in saying that large inroads would be made on the Republican registration and that President Roosevelt and other candidates were in a fair way to carry the county.

Following the business meeting, refreshments were served.

High school girls who will participate in the program are Dale Holcomb, Jean Smith, Marcia Johnson, Eleanor Peters, Beth Smith and Virginia Johnson. Their program will begin at 3:30 o'clock.

Members of the education and recreation committee and their responsibilities for this first fall "At Home" are: Mrs. Robert Alexander welcoming; Mrs. Norbert Peterson, refreshments; Mrs. W. F. Bennett, class registrations.

Women of the community, be they YWCA members or not, are urged to come to the party, bringing their handwork with them. There will be visiting, sewing or fancywork, entertainment and refreshments. There will also be opportunity for signing up for classes and the young matrons' group. The hour is three o'clock.

Hallowe'en Plans For Girl Reserves

The Hallowe'en season is well under way at the YWCA activities building. It began with a Hallowe'en party Saturday, October 21, by the Freshman Girls' Club. The evening started with games, played in the company of witches, black cats, pumpkins, and goblins which lent atmosphere to the room. Following the serving of refreshments, dancing to recorded music put the finishing touch on the festivities.

On Tuesday afternoon the Beauty Girl Reserves held their first official business meeting. At this time they, also, made Hallowe'en plans, to be in the form of a party in place of their regular meeting next week. The time is set for four o'clock to allow for the donning of costumes, either at home or at the activities building, as suits the individual. The price of admission will be announced later, and all 7th and 8th grade Girl Reserves are welcome. At this meeting plans were also made for installation and candle-light services to be held November 7th, and those girls who wish to be members are urged to pay their dues before that date. Following adjournment, get-acquainted games were played.

Monday night, October 23rd, Ring Committee held its first discussion. "Gracious in Manner", led by Elizabeth Bathurst and Jean Crossett. The worship service was presented by Jeanine Hunzinger. A three supper was planned for the next meeting, and the Girl Reserve code, slogan, purpose, etc. must be given from memory at this time. Leaders of Ring Committee this year are Juliana Hanford and Virginia Johnson.

The weekly meeting of Freshman Girls' Club was held Wednesday afternoon. After a short business meeting the girls divided into two groups and took penny hikes around town.

Mooseheart Day Observed By Local Women of Moose Lodge

Mooseheart Day—marking the 31st anniversary of the founding of Mooseheart, the great Child City, 35 miles west of Chicago operated by the Moose Fraternity was marked well here last evening by the Women of the Moose. The affair had been carefully arranged and a turkey dinner was served, a short program was given and a dancing party enjoyed. The occasion is also the birthday of United States Senator James J. Davis who heads the Moose bodies in the world and whose foresight brought about the formation of Mooseheart.

Mrs. Jennie Lauffenberger presided at the program following the excellent dinner served and prepared by Women of the Moose. The tables had been handsomely decorated and the dining hall presented a pretty picture with the beautiful tables and the animated group of about 75 to 100 men and women in attendance.

Following an invocation pronounced by Mrs. Mary MacDonald, Mrs. Lauffenberger presented Eddie Stites, Past Governor of the Warren Lodge who told in an interesting manner of his recent visit to Mooseheart. He described the various buildings on the site and gave a vivid story of the way in which the boys and girls at the Mooseheart City live. Mooseheart is utterly devoid of all features of the ordinary orphan's home and the boys and girls are reared as carefully as in their own homes and a spirit of initiative is developed that makes them good citizens. Mrs. Mabel Crimpenshaw favored them with a humorous reading which was well done.

Walter Kiser, secretary of the Warren Lodge then gave a biographical sketch of Senator James J. Davis, head of the Moose bodies. It traced the rise of the son of Welsh emigrants to his present place in the United States Senate and paid a tribute to his work with the Moose Lodge which developed mainly through his efforts and hard work.

Clare A. Berger, First Past Governor of the Warren Lodge was the closing speaker and he outlined the fraternal side of the Moose organization and urged greater unity in the work of the organization and the support of all Moose by their fellow lodge members.

The program closed with the singing of "America the Beautiful" by the assemblage.

Speed, Care and Sympathy Mark Casualty Messages

Delivery of the casualty message to a soldier's family informing them of his death, injury or loss in an overseas theater, or that he is missing, missing in action or a prisoner of war, is handled with all the speed, care and understanding possible, the War Department said today in making public some of the rules governing the delivery of casualty messages which have been prescribed by the Armed Forces and are carried out by the Western Union Telegraph Company.

As the casualty lists increase, the number of such messages handled by Western Union for delivery increases proportionately. Under War Department regulations, casualty messages must be delivered in person within the hours of 7:00 a. m. and 10:00 p. m. with complete regard at all times for the feelings of the person opening the familiar yellow envelope.

The regulations further provide that all casualty messages must be delivered by messenger and not by telephone. The only exception to this is made in the case of persons who are not at home when the messenger calls and for whom the messenger is left to deliver the message to the person to whom the message is addressed in person, when calling Western Union, at the message is relayed by telephone, Western Union is permitted to comply.

Under no circumstances are arrangements permitted whereby "other organizations" representatives may accompany the messenger delivering a casualty message.

Messengers are instructed to "act naturally" and not to divulge the nature of the message to the emergency addressee. They are cautioned always to be on the alert to the reaction of the recipient of the bad news. If the addressee shows signs of fainting or coming hysterical, the messenger should tactfully inquire whether there is anything he can do—such as calling a friend or neighbor to assist the bereaved person.

Even though mothers and wives can steel themselves against the terrible receipt of bad news when they know their loved ones are in combat zone, the receipt of a casualty message is, nevertheless, all cases a severe shock to the emergency addressee. For this reason, Western Union messengers are instructed to deliver casualty messages to male members of the family whenever possible.

Western Union is frequently confronted with the difficult task of locating the proper persons for whom the telegram is intended. Moved to new locations and have failed to notify The Adjutant General of their new address make the task of delivering the telegram doubly difficult for the telegram company. Telephone and city directories are searched, or assistance may be sought from the local post offices which have rendered excellent service in connection with locating casualty message addressees. It may be necessary to go to neighbors in an attempt to find where the addressee has gone. Draft boards and school authorities assist in locating addressees who have moved. Sometimes it is necessary to check the records of public utilities, such as gas and electric companies. Emergency addressees who should notify The Adjutant

Crux of WAC Row

When WAC Cpl. Marie Sayre, Butler, Ind., above, voted most popular girl at camp, was ordered transferred from Ft. Belvoir, Va., to Ft. Meyer, Fla., revolt flamed against Capt. Dorothy Tomhave, ranking officer. More than 100 WACs threatened to go AWOL if she "attempts another purge." Girls befeared because they said Captain Tomhave had spent company funds on redecorating the mess hall without their consent or approval.

General, War Department, Washington 25, D. C., of changes of address which occur following the departure of the soldier for an overseas destination.

Not all casualty messages contain bad news. Frequently a man who has been reported as missing in action later returns to his unit. In fast, mobile warfare large numbers of men are reported temporarily missing from their units but later rejoin their organizations.

In every case their emergency addressees are promptly notified. In the case of the Air Forces, a high percentage of men originally listed as missing in action later are reported to be prisoners of war.

In delivering all types of casualty messages, however, good or bad, no effort is spared by the War Department and Western Union to see that these vital messages concerning the welfare of our troops are delivered to the properly designated persons with speed, accuracy and human understanding.

SEAL HAREMS

Dragon 2nds In Lakewood Fray Tonight

Coach J. B. Leidig's second eleven jump into the spotlight tonight, traveling to Lakewood to battle Moose Swearingen's Lakewood varsity. The locals have previously downed the Lakewooders this season by identical scores, 6-0, and will attempt to keep the slate clean by again downing the Empire Staters tonight on Packard Field.

Coach Leidig is expected to tangle his most promising boys for next year's squad so as to attain the maximum strength in this evening's battle which will undoubtedly be the stiffest battle the little Dragons have encountered this year. Last year the locals pulled one out of the bag by scoring with but one minute to play on a pass interception and taking the long end of the count, 6-0. For the past few years, the two teams have been trading back and forth on frequent scrimmage games and his years practice games have been the closest of all past seasons.

After absorbing a 14-0 loss at the hands of the Jamestown J-Vs the Leidig secondary crew gets into action tonight at 8:15, playing their first game under the lights. The Lakewood crew has a slight edge on the local eleven, although the Dragons have already held a slight margin over the Empire Staters in night contests.

Warren probable lineup: McNally LE, Cawley LT, Sedon LG, Jeracimos C, Julian RG, Knapp RT, McLean RE, Massa JB, Brown LH, Bonace RH, J. Scalise FB.

Town's Favorite Sons Do Gridiron Battle

New York, Oct. 26—(AP)—The eyes of Massillon, O., (pop. 23,000) where professional football flourished back in 1905, will focus Saturday on Madison, Wis., where two of the town's favorite sons will do gridiron battle.

The illustrious pair—Coach Harry Stuhldreher of Wisconsin, and Lt. Paul Brown, skipper of the Great Lakes Sailors—both came up from Massillon's Washington High School, where for the past 10 years the "Terrific Tigers" have averaged 18,000 per game in attendance and haven't been beaten more than a couple of times. Both were backfield men for the Tigers.

Stuhldreher, graduating in 1920, went on to Notre Dame to become one of the famed "Four Horsemen." Brown, six years later, found himself too small for Ohio State's rugged squad after a year as a freshman, and transferred to Little Miami University at Oxford, O.

Both turned to coach after college, Stuhldreher spending a decade at Villanova before picking up the Wisconsin reins.

Hornets Hold Firm Grasp On 1st Place

By the Associated Press
The Pittsburgh Hornets today hold first place in the Western Division of the American Hockey League firmly in their grasp. Scoring their fourth victory in a row last night when they whipped Providence, 6-3, Max Kaminsky's men have now won one third of their entire bag last year.

The Hornets staged a third-period rally after the Reds had knotted the count at 2-2 in the second period. Pittsburgh shot home three fast goals early in the last round to clinch the contest. After a 6-1 defeat at the hands of the Cleveland Barons on opening day, the Hornets have knocked off Providence, Cleveland and Buffalo, and have averaged six goals a game.

Fireworks last night were furnished by Hornets' Howard MacKie. The Pittsburgh left-winger was ruled off the ice in the third period for tripping, and drew a ten-minute misconduct penalty for arguing too heatedly with Referee Norval Fitzgerald.

In the other game last night, the Indianapolis Caps' 7-3 margin of victory over the Hershey Bears was the playing of Wing Jud McAtee, on loan from the Detroit Red Wings. McAtee scored four goals, two of them unassisted. He tallied twice in the second period in the space of a minute and 12 seconds.

Layden Warns Not To Count Cleveland Out

Chicago, Oct. 26—(AP)—Those Green Bay Packers may be booming along at the head of the National Football League's Western Division today, but says Commissioner Elmer Layden, they can't be counted in until the Cleveland Rams are counted out.

"Remember, the Rams were just about counted out before the season opened," Layden said today in an interview. "Look what they've done. They knocked off the Cardinals, Chicago Bears and Detroit Lions in a row before losing that 30-21 thriller to Green Bay Sunday."

"That team has more spirit, more confidence than any club in the league, and an ingenuity in developing plays off the T-formation that has every defense they'll meet worried."

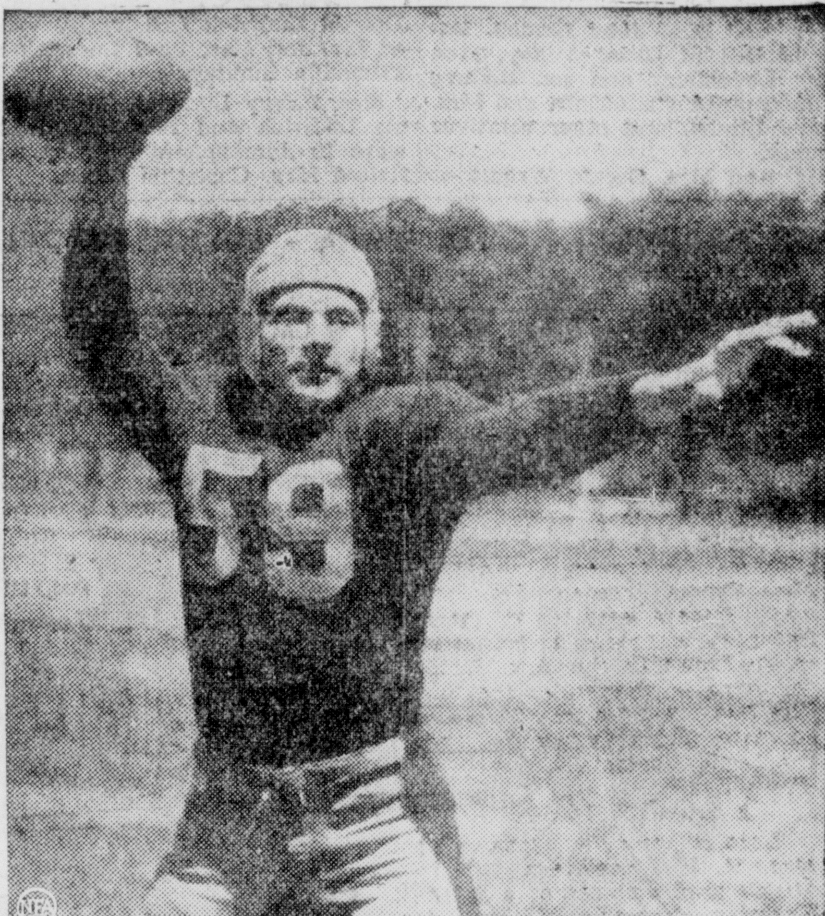

County Teams In Stiff Weekend Football Games

This weekend, two of the county's grid teams again go forth into battle, Bob Jewell's Youngsville Eagles going to Bradford to meet a highly favored Owl eleven, and Sheffield playing host to the Kane Wolves.

Youngsville is the underdog in Friday eve's contest although the Eagles have been exhibiting a fine brand of ball. The Owls now have three wins and two losses to their credit which includes a 19-6 over the Warren crew. Gametime Friday p. m. is 7:30 at Parkway Field in Bradford.

Sheffield's Wolverines play host to Paul Montgomery's Kane High School eleven on Saturday at Sheffield. The Sheffield boys previously took a one-point margin win from the Wolves at Kane. The Kane griders are going through very heavy drills and scrimmages this week to stage a revenge over the Wolverines. Gametime Saturday afternoon is 2:30.

BEHIND THE LINES

Thoughts of Home

We received in the mail yesterday a letter from a local boy, Morgan Babcock, stationed at Camp Mackall, North Carolina, concerning his delight in seeing Warren, Pennsylvania represented on the Georgia Navy Pre-Flight team whom he witnessed battle against North Carolina Pre-Flight last Saturday. Morgan wrote, "We all went over to Chapel Hill last Saturday to see North Carolina and Georgia play. I was very happy to see Warren, Pennsylvania represented on the Georgia Navy Pre-Flight football team. The game was very good and in the last quarter, with about three minutes left in the game, North Carolina kicked a field goal to win the game, 3-0. Georgia had the ball on the Carolina six-inch line with three tries to score but the Carolinians held them."

Warren's representative on the Georgia eleven is Cadet Jack D'Angelo, blocking back on the Navy squad. D'Angelo has the in several of the Georgia games this season. He played fullback for Warren High in 1942, playing High School football for four years. It was interesting to note that he is one of four Pennsylvanians on the Pre-Flight team. Another near-by footballer on the Georgia squad is Bill Eckert, of St. Marys. Eckert played ball for the St. Marys High School crew.

Corporal Babcock was extremely pleased in meeting a fellow serviceman from his home town. This happy incident undoubtedly brought back many memories of high school days to the two fellows.

SPORTS ROUND-UP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
New York, Oct. 26—(AP)—In a high school football game at Chipewa Falls, Wis., recently, the two teams lined up facing the wrong goals after a score and didn't discover it until Bloomer High School carried the winning touchdown over the wrong line. . . . Then the hollering began but officials decided to allow the tally and to finish the game the wrong way. . . . And in Ohio a Youngstown Ursuline halfback was going for a touchdown when a Scienceville sub, ready to go into the game, dashed out from the sidelines and tackled him. . . . Also in Ohio Ted Himes of Mt. Blanchard insisted on kicking the extra points bare footed. "I get a better feel of things with 'em off," he explained. He made three out of four tries.

Hal Chase and George Sisler, conceded to be two of the best fielding first basemen in baseball, each made four errors in one contest while Zeke Bonura, noted for his stationary fielding, held the record for double plays by a first baseman—150—until Lou Gehrig broke it.

Escape Trap In Leyte Is Being Closed

On the extreme northern front, the 10th Corps completed shore-to-shore movements which seized the southern coast of nearby Samar island and shot off American snits to the northern tip of Leyte.

The landing on Samar, Fifth Philippine island to be invaded, was reported Monday and confirmed in today's communiqué.

The maneuver gave the Americans control of San Juanico Strait, the narrow, crooked waterway dividing Leyte and Samar. The main Japanese supply line for supplies and reinforcements from the north thus has been severed.

Liberation troops have swept 20 miles northward of Tacloban, the communiqué reported.

Carrier planes turned back a large-scale Japanese daylight assault Tuesday on American shipping in Leyte Gulf. Fifty-three Japanese planes were shot down in dogfights, and antiaircraft fire destroyed three more.

Ground forces "easily repulsed" a Japanese night counterattack and have throttled local assaults and infiltration attempts.

The order stated that under naval management the wage rates, hours of work, overtime and general working conditions existing at the time of the seizure would prevail.

gagemen in the Sibuyan sea of the Philippines on which the fate of invasion forces on Leyte hung in the balance.

These two battles brought these results: Definitely sunk—One large carrier, one light carrier, four cruisers.

Probably sunk—One large carrier, two battleships.

Severely damaged—Six battleships, three heavy cruisers and several destroyers.

Japanese naval communiques admitted the loss of one battleship, two cruisers, 1 destroyer and substantial damage to another battleship.

Most of the destruction was inflicted on a Japanese task force caught south of Formosa, Nimitz said, "with no damage to our ships."

Previously Nimitz had reported the loss of the light carrier Princeton and General MacArthur announced the sinking of an escort carrier from the seventh fleet covering his amphibious landings on Leyte.

The Imperial task force caught near Formosa in the Philippine sea "was attacked by a concentration of aircraft, surface ships and submarines" for a day and night. Enemy aircraft flew out from the Philippines in a futile attempt to rescue the trapped Nipponese task force. The Japs finally escaped under cover of a black night.

By far the greatest of the three naval engagements was fought southeast of Formosa where carrier pilots of Vice Adm. Marc A. Mitscher's task force routed a major force of the Imperial navy.

The three day series of engagements began late Monday afternoon and continued into Wednesday morning until every Japanese ship afloat had turned its stern toward Halsey and was fleeing with all speed possible in a crippled condition.

Apparently only the blackness of the night made it possible for the crippled survivors of the Mikado's forces to disperse and flee from the wrath of the Halsey-Mitscher carrier pilots.

This second battle of the Philippines sea—Adm. Raymond A. Spruance directed the first, on June 19 when his carrier planes sank or damaged nearly a score of enemy ships—very probably has made possible an attack against the Japanese homeland itself.

Library Books In Memory Of Victor Mahaffey Granquist

A collection of books presented in memory of Victor Mahaffey Granquist is on display this week at the Warren Public Library. The titles were selected by relatives and friends with the interests of the young man in mind and will be added to the library's memorial collection.

A two volume work, The Principles of Chemical Engineering, by William H. Walker, Warren, K. Lewis, William H. McAdams, and Edwin R. Gilliland is an outstanding addition to the technical section of the library. The authors are professors of chemical engineering at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. A new edition of Rogers Manual of Industrial Chemistry, by George Russell Harrison, and A Treasury of Science, edited by Harlow Shapley, Samuel Rapport and Helen Wright are also valued as technical and scientific additions.

An interest in sports and the out of doors was considered in the selection of Fresh-water Bass by Ray Bergman, known throughout the country by fishermen; and L. W. Brownell's Natural History With a Camera filled with photographs by the author, from living wild things many of them in their natural habitat.

The Amazing Bob Davis by Fred S. Mathis presents an unforgettable character in a new biography of the author, editor, sportsman and amateur photographer who is known all over the world.

All of these books will be released for circulation next Monday, after being on display for a week at the library.

LUDLOW

Ludlow, Oct. 24—The Lutheran Circle met on Wednesday evening at the Red Cross rooms with the regular business meeting conducted by the president, Mrs. Carl E. Swanson. A great many bandages were made in spite of the small attendance. These surgical dressings are urgently needed so all members are needed. The hostesses, Mrs. Julius Swanson and Mrs. Enoch Nelson, served refreshments later at the home of Mrs. Swanson.

A committee meeting with Miss Edith Larson as chairman, was held on Wednesday evening at the church parlors which made plans for the reception to be given the Rev. and Mrs. Hans Pearson who will arrive Nov. 1 to take over the pastoral duties of the Sheffield and Ludlow Lutheran parishes. The date will be set later for the reception.

Regular church services were held in the Lutheran church on Sunday evening with the Rev. Carl Nelson of Wilcox in charge. He will give the sermon next Sunday evening also, which will be his last as the substitute pastor. Luther League will be held on Thursday at the church parlors.

The Covenant Mission was very fortunate during the past week to have two very interesting speakers within such a short time. Miss Mabel Olson delivered an unusual lecture on Tuesday evening concerning her recent experiences in China and the Reverend Joel Johnson gave a vivid description of his experiences also on Friday evening. These two Covenant Mission missionaries were stationed at Tsin Mein in central China and were interned by the Japanese in a Lutheran Mission Home in Chungking long before Pearl Harbor. They became accustomed to the bombing and the strafing of the enemy. They were among the first missionaries to be returned on the repatriation ship, Gripes.

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief

Many sufferers relieve nagging backaches quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about a pint a day. When disorder of kidney function permits poisons to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills. Used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Announcements will be made later concerning the amount received. The Junior Class of Ludlow High sponsored a cake-walk at the I. O. O. F. hall on Friday evening which was a huge success. Stacey Carter furnished the music. This is an old-fashioned kind of fun which seems to bring a lot of pleasure to people of all ages if one is to judge by the interest shown—bue especially do the high school group enjoy these affairs. Miss Catherine Bellucci, Junior adviser was in charge of the evening. The cake-walk was followed by a dance.

The Ludlow Bridge Club was entertained on Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Wilbur Johnson. Prizes were won by Mrs. Clair Gardner and Mrs. Wm. Muir of Union City. Guests were Mrs. Wm. Muir of Union City and Mrs. John Bowers of Seymour, Indiana. The Activities' Club of Ludlow High was given an unusual and interesting experience when many of the members attended the session of the blood bank at Kane on Wednesday afternoon.
